Dear Sirs,

Thank you for your call and emails regarding the Clause 6.3 letters.

We understand these have been distributed to us in error and, although we do not have any hard copies to return/delete and only received electronic versions, we confirm that Omnia will not use them except in accordance with the provisions of the Settlement Agreement.

Please note that Omnia cannot give any undertakings insofar as third parties have copies of the letters, namely our clients. However, we will inform our clients of the error and we will advise them that they are also bound by the Settlement Agreement in respect of the Clause 6.3 letters.

Yours faithfully,
Omnia Strategy LLP

Dear Sirs

Further to our conversation a moment ago (Rollo/Doran), I'm grateful for confirmation that you accept the letters to the Prosecutor signed by our client were sent in error and that they will not be used by Omnia Strategy. It is also noted that a copy of these letters was also sent in error under cover of an email dated 6 October 2021 (15.28).

In our conversation it was made clear by me that this undertaking should also extend to your clients. Any use of this letter in any proceedings be it in New York or Madagascar or anywhere else would be in breach of clause 6.3 of the Settlement Agreement and I look forward to receiving confirmation from you that the letters will be returned.

Yours faithfully

Nicholas Doran
